The Art Institute of Chicago was incorporated May 24, 1879, for the "founding and maintenance of schools of art and design, the formation and exhibition of collections of objects of art, and the cultivation and extension of the arts of design by any appropriate means." The museum building upon the Lake Front, first occupied in 1893, has never been closed for a day. It is open to the public every week day from 9 to 6; Sundays from 12:15 to 10 p. m. Admission is free at all times, to members and their families and to public school teachers and pupils, and to all upon Wednesdays, Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays. Upon other days the entrance fee is twenty-five cents.

All friends of art are invited to become members. Annual Members pay a fee of $10 a year. Sustaining Members pay $25 or more a year. Life Members pay $100 and are thenceforth exempt from dues. Governing Members pay $100 upon election and $25 a year thereafter. Upon the payment of $400 Governing Members become Governing Life Members and are thenceforth exempt from dues. All receipts from life memberships are invested, and the income only is expended. Benefactors are persons who have contributed $25,000 or more.

All members are entitled, with their families and non-resident visiting friends, to the use of the Ryerson (art) Library and admission to all exhibitions, receptions, public lectures, and entertainments given by the Art Institute, with the exception of the Sunday concerts, to which a small fee is charged.

The School includes departments of Drawing, Painting, Sculpture, Illustration, Decorative Designing, Normal Instruction and Architecture.

Information and circulars of instruction may be obtained of the School Registrar.
